

Application for the appointment of a mediator under the RICS Consumer Mediation Dispute Scheme

General Information

The RICS Consumer Mediation Scheme (the CMS) is an opportunity for consumers to attempt to resolve their disputes without the time and expense of taking the matter to court.

It is designed for consumers who have bought goods or services from a trader and who have tried to resolve the issues with the trader.

DRS do not charge an administrative fee for the appointment of a mediator under the scheme.

Notes to consider before completing the application:

Before completing this form please read the Consumer Mediation Scheme – Guidance Document.

RICS DRS reserves the right to copy the application and/or any accompanying documentation to the responding party and/or representatives. This is on the basis that your application is accepted.

The application form is the contract between the consumer and RICS and we will rely entirely upon the information provided. The information submitted on this application is accepted as being accurate and complete. Neither RICS nor the appointed mediator accepts liability in relation to the appointment.

Explanatory notes

- RICS has a duty to act independently and transparently when appointing a dispute resolver. On receipt of a request, DRS will select a suitability qualified RICS Accredited Mediator who is free from conflicts of interest.
- It is vital that you complete all sections of the application form; incomplete sections may result in delays and an inappropriate nomination.
- As a matter of policy RICS may forward the information contained in an application form and supplementary documentation in the case details, to the trader in dispute and/or the representatives. Details of the case will also be sent to prospective mediators to help them decide whether they can or cannot take on the nomination.
- If the dispute is resolved before the mediator is nominated, you must notify RICS as soon as possible.
- RICS DRS acts in an administrative capacity and will make an appointment in accordance with your application
- Your application will be processed on the basis that that appointments are often made on behalf of the President/Chairman of RICS by one of his/her duly appointed agents.
- RICS DRS will not always seek comments from the parties on disclosures made by potential appointees. In some cases the President/Chairman may decline to appoint someone, even if they are satisfied that he potential dispute resolver has no conflicts of interest. Before an appointment is made RICS DRS will take into account a range of factors including representations made by both parties.
