

RICS Adjudication Competencies for non-panellists

CONTINUOUS LEARNING

Enhance your expertise in construction adjudication with our tailored training programme designed to sharpen your skills and elevate your practice.

This programme is ideal for adjudicators, aspiring adjudicators, party representatives in construction adjudications, and anyone involved in construction dispute resolution. Whether you are looking to build your knowledge or refine your current skills, this training offers valuable insights for professionals at all levels.

This interactive, in-person programme is mandatory for all adjudicators on the RICS Panel. Non-panel members are welcome to attend to develop their skills and knowledge of Adjudication. These competency workshops provide valuable CPD and an opportunity to keep a breadth of adjudication updates

What core competencies will I develop?

Attending this training will help you develop crucial adjudication competencies. These competencies will empower you to raise your standards, improve your reputation, and approach adjudication with confidence.

The Appointment of the Adjudicator

The Adjudication
Process

Adjudication Practice and Procedure

The Decision

Do the workshops need to be completed in order?

Workshops 1-3 can be completed in any order but we recommend workshop 4 is completed last.

Workshop 1:

The Appointment of the Adjudicator

Identifying and dealing with conflicts of interest

At Adjudicator appointment stage and thereafter identifying & dealing with conflicts of interest when acting as a tribunal.

Dealing with jurisdictional challenges

Dealing with jurisdictional challenges when acting as a tribunal at all stages of the adjudication process.

Workshop 2:

The Adjudication Process

Maintaining & controlling the process

Maintaining and controlling the process of an adjudication from appointment through to post decision. Addressing the management of an adjudication.

Workshop 3: Adjudication Practice and Procedure

Principles and practice of contract interpretation

Contractual interpretation – such as interpretation of terms of written contracts involving ascertaining the meaning of the words, taking into consideration the context and what they would mean to a reasonable person with the relevant background and knowledge, that was available to the parties at the time the contract was formed.

Current trends in adjudication

Current trends will be adapted for each workshop to cover modern trends that are developing in adjudication.

Workshop 4: The Decision

Evidence

Managing evidence leading to understanding what it entails to produce a written Decision.

What is expected of a party to support its pleaded case by way of evidence and then from these submissions cover how an adjudicator identifies the issues in dispute and how they then assimilates the evidence presented by the parties in support of the contested issues.

Decision writing

How an adjudicator goes about formulating a decision and the process followed to draft a well reasoned and enforceable decision.

Pricing

Each workshop: £425 + VAT

Venue

All workshops will take place in person. Specific venue details will be available online at time of booking.

Delivering confidence

We are RICS. As a member-led chartered professional body working in the public interest, we uphold the highest technical and ethical standards. We inspire professionalism, advance knowledge and support our members across global markets to make an effective contribution for the benefit of society. We independently regulate our members in the management of land, real estate, construction and infrastructure. Our work with others supports their professional practice and pioneers a natural and built environment that is sustainable, resilient and inclusive for all.

Americas, Europe, Middle East & Africa
aemea@rics.org

Asia Pacific
apac@rics.org

United Kingdom & Ireland
contactrics@rics.org

rics.org